C Acceptance of Minutes from Previous Meetings Minutes from meetings on 18 and 29 November 2018 accepted without objections	2min	Julian
D Internal Officers, Committees, & ED Representatives	20.12 — 20.32	Co-Presidents & ED Officers
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - all nominations can be found here - confusion around disabilities rep, Fey to continue? - JJ no longer officially LGTB+ rep, but still happy to organise events - inclusion of international rep (mostly to focus on cultural events from around the world) - music rep: suggestion to liaise with Music Society prior to casting responsibilities in stone - no objection to any of the nominations
E CUSU and GU Affiliation Matters	20.32 — 20.56	Co-Presidents
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - CUSU affiliation (~£4,300) - CUSU's mission is to represent the broader interests of all students - most funds go to paying sabbatical officers - as of this year, the affiliation fee decision lies with the Colleges, no longer with WCSA - membership fee now paid by College and deducted from WCSA budget

- other CUSU projects: Prevent, Student Advice Service (20%), campaigns to help students who intermit
- Senior Tutor and President about CUSU benefits, who prefer affiliation because of some of their advocacy projects, e.g., National Student Survey
- CUSU had budget deficit last year, hence convinced colleges to pay (before discussing it with college-based student organisations)
- WCSA has a good working relationship with College, no need for CUSU support for within-College communication
- GU affiliation (~£1,000)
 - funds the remaining 80% of SAS
 - trialed Buddy system at Wolfson and other colleges
 - pays four sabbatical officers
 - campaigns for graduate rights, mental health, supervision problem, new focus on international students
- vote: simple majority decision to demand the decision-making power over affiliation fee payment
- vote: simply majority decision to not host CUSU press conference, but to host GU council meeting

D 2019 Budget

- football teams' unbalanced budget applications
 - women's football asked for £2,000, despite being paired with Darwin, which gave them £2,000
 - women's team would then have £4,000 in total, almost double of what (Wolfson only) men's team gets (£2,500)
 - executive decision to grant half of men's budget
- ents budget increase from ~£3,000 to ~£8,000 (based on last year's overspending)
- additional funds for external officers, given their work's popularity within College
- general budget remarks
 - College gives £23,000p.a. (disregarding inflation)
 - increases unlikely, as WCSA never spends its full budget => Joseph urged to tackle (preferably infrastructural) issues within our means
 - Max Mulvany (in charge of renovating OCR) suggested for WCSA to donate a piece of artwork (tapestry) to the currently renovated OCR
=> unanimous decision to spend £500, but objections to deciding without seeing the piece
=> Paul to circulate link to artwork
 - £4,000 for miscellaneous expenses

 - asked WCSA to co-host => no objections
 - platform for WCSA to say something
 - appointment process of the new bursar
 - Andrew and David will attend
 - succinct message to convey to the recruitment company:
 - someone flexible and willing to invest
 - candidate from a mature college, who treats WCSA as an adult community
 - someone familiar with the College
 - token of appreciation for the parting bursar
 - (commissioning of drawing) for parting bursar, because in many occasions he has pushed for students' interests => postponed to next meeting; but Andrew to find out what College does

 - half-way drinks
 - Ruben meets Sian next week to discuss

 - online calendar: Paul, Julian, Vlad to meet and present at the next meeting
 - suggestion to use ballot system instead of first-come, first-serve (relevant people to meet and discuss further)
 - piano update: broken electric piano is WCSA's responsibility, Lyn did not do that; will be moved to Lee Room
 - hoodies: who should get them? should WCSA pay? simple majority to have hoodies,
